The Faculty of Law and Economics is located on the Cappont Campus and is one of the UdL's best established faculties in terms of tradition and student numbers. Its courses provide a high level of rigorous academic training. The structure of its courses centres on the tourist, legal, business and economic sector. Through the intensive use of new technological innovations and the most advanced teaching methods, the faculty's programmes focus on the training of professionals who are able to adapt to the changing needs of both business and society – a fact reflected in the high number of students who successfully find employment. Lifelong learning and other activities aimed at professionals and students are also a notable part of the faculty's course content, in addition to various post-graduate programmes, master degree courses and doctorates run by the faculty's departments.
